Administrative history / Biographical sketch

Note

In 1792, the United Counties of Northumberland and Durham were officially created in a proclamation made by Lieutenant-Governor John Graves Simcoe. The proclamation divided Upper Canada in 19 Counties for representation purposes. The United Counties are bounded by Lake Ontario in the south, Hasting County in the east, Ontario County in the west and Peterborough and Victoria Counties in the north. The town line between Hope and Hamilton Townships divide the two counties. Durham County consists of the Townships of Cartwright, Manvers, Cavan, Darlington, Clarke and Hope. Northumberland County consists of South Monaghan, Hamilton, Haldimand, Alnwick, Percy, Cramahe, Seymour, Brighton and Murray Townships. (Taken from: _Illustrated Historical Atlas of Northumberland and Durham Counties, Ontario_. Belleville: Mika Silk Screening Limited, 1972.)

Finding aids

Published indexes exist for the records of this fonds: _The Marriage Registers of Upper Canada/Canada West, Volume 7, Part 1 (1831-1848) and Part 2 (1848-1855), Newcastle District_ / Walker-Molotkow. Copies of the indexes available in the Archives' Northway Reading Room - Archives REF CS 88 .06 W34 2000 v. 7 pts. 1-2.

A typed index for loose records in Box 1 is located inside the box. The Archives discovered 5 additional original returns in May 2005 and another 7 additional original returns in January 2007. Because the marriages documented in these returns were not included in the Archives of Ontario registers, the documents are transcribed in the notes at the file-level record.

Indexes/transcriptions of bound volumes have been added as digital objects. A navy blue binder located on top of bound volumes contains a printed copy of their transcriptions.

	Scope and content:
	File consists of 7 original returns, discovered by archives staff in January 2007. The documents include births, baptisms, marriages, and deaths. The marriages were not included in the Walker-Molotkow Marriage Registers; we therefore presume that they were not included in the Archives of Ontario registers. The documents are transcribed below. Also included with the 7 documents is: "A Schedule of Marriages, Births and Deaths within the United Counties of Northumberland and Durham within the year 1851," signed by T. Ward, Clerk of the Peace. (Reverse: Return of Convictions). This document provides total numbers of births, marriages, and deaths, as registered by the various ministers for the year 1851. Some of the 7 above are represented in this list.
